

“Get involved by Choice not Force!”

We are saddened by the tragic law enforcement shooting of a community member in the Newton Division area on Sunday, October 2, 2016, as we are saddened by the tragic shooting that took the life of a LA County Sherriff deputy in Lancaster, on Wednesday, October 5, 2016. We must work together to get the answers our community asks for and to hold those responsible for violence accountable so we do not lose another community member again.

As a part of our call for increased communication, accountability and transparency, we are hosting a with community members, organizers for police accountability and Newton Division Police Captain and officers. We are committed to ending all shootings, increasing dialogue and finding solutions towards peace, justice and healing.

Town Hall meeting
